Are your menu prices higher for deliveries?

We never mark up our menu prices for delivery. You pay the same for pickup or delivery and get the same abundant portions, food quality and value.

Is there a delivery fee?

All orders are subject to a 15% delivery fee up to $200, and 5% delivery fee for orders above $200. The delivery fee covers the cost to package, transport and set up your event (where provided). The delivery fee is not a tip for the Delivery Specialist - please feel free to tip your Delivery Specialist based on your experience.

When is it appropriate to request chafing dishes and fuel?

For occasions where time between setup and service is extended or you have an event with a prolonged service, we recommend adding chafing dishes and warmers to your order to maintain food temperature. Also, chafing dishes are great when a higher level of presentation is wanted.
